

Videotapes, 1968-1993

Boxes 722-734 (13 boxes)

Arranged by format, cassette and reel, and then chronological. Dated tapes listed first, followed by those with no dates.

Contains tapes from campaigns, speeches, debates and television shows on a variety of issues. Also included are tapes of Senators Ed Muskie and Henry Jackson. Of special note are two reels of the PBS television show "Advocates" featuring Morris K. Udall, Senator Humphrey, and Senator Muskie debating a Republican contingent led by Caspar Weinberger, the Barry & Mo show, a nostalgic and humorous look at Arizona history and politics, filmed in 1985 and a number of video tributes done for Udall on his retirement from Congress in 1991. Abbreviations used 5 30's = five thirty second spots. Headings compiled from sources available as annotations on tape boxes, reels or cassettes. Running time of the tape if available follows title. The videotapes have not been viewed, quality is unknown. A number of duplicates are present and noted.
