America: History and Life and Historical Abstracts TIPS

America: History & Life indexes journal articles, dissertations, conference proceedings, contents of books and some book reviews about the history of the United States and Canada from pre-history to the present time.

Historical Abstracts indexes journal articles, dissertations, and books covering world history, excluding the United States and Canada, from the period of 1450 to the present.

You can search both databases simultaneously by clicking on Choose Databases.

Select Historical Abstracts if you are in America: History and Life from the list of databases that appears.

Select America: History and Life if you are in Historical Abstracts from the list of databases that appears.

Click OK at the bottom of the list to confirm the selection.

Search Keys:

Select a field searches through words in the title, abstract and assigned subject terms.

To narrow a topic, put different words in different search boxes, for example, “law” in the first box and “slavery” in the next box.

To limit by specific language, historical time period, or document type, use the boxes below the Green line.
Language. Click on the language you wish to retrieve using the drop down box, e.g. English.

Historical Period. Type in the range of years you wish to search and change the drop down box marked Era to c.e. (AD).

Document Type can be chosen. You may limit a search to “Articles,” “Book Reviews,” “Media Reviews,” “Collections,” and “Dissertations.”

Cited reference searching is possible in when you search the databases separately. Click on Cited References.

Type in the author you wish to find.

A screen will appear with a list of citations.

If there are articles citing this work, a check box will appear next to the citation.
Click in the box to choose the article you wish and then click on Find Citing Articles.
